

WASHINGTON - Congressman WASHINGTON [A Copy of the Letter Is Available Upon Request]ing

"LIHEAP helps lower income families pay their energy bills, a service that is particularly valuable given

With strong support from Olver and nearly 100 other Members of Congress, LIHEAP was awarded $30

In December 2004, the average cost of a gallon of heating oil in Massachusetts was $1.86, approximat

The Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) is the primary program that provides ass

"LIHEAP is a vital safety net that reduces the percentage of income spent on residential energy costs, p

###